

British Curling Men's Investment Policy for 2018-19

The investment received from UK Sport is designed to achieve a medal in future Men's Olympic Games and British Curling's current role is to invest in the right Men's teams to maximise medal potential in 2022 and 2026. (Please note that the levels of investment can only be finally confirmed after British Curling's Review by UK Sport on 29th June).

Investment criteria

All teams applying will be assessed against the following criteria:

1. Eligibility - All team members to meet the eligibility (See Appendix 1)
2. Performance History - All team members previous three season's results and rankings
  - Future potential - The team to qualify for a Tier 1 Slam event by the end of season 2018/19 and achieve
  - Top 6 at Worlds and/or medal at Europeans by end of 2019/20 season

Investment Panel

All investment decisions will be the responsibility of the British Curling Investment Panel. The panel is as follows:

BC Performance Director – Voting Member and Panel Chair

BC Head of Coaching – Voting Member

BC Lead Performance Analyst – Voting Member

BC Board Representative - Non-Voting Member. This member is to oversee the proper conduct and due process of the selection process and ensure appropriate recording of all selection information.

The Investment Panel will consider the stated Investment criteria in making their decisions and may also consult support specialists where appropriate.

The investment process is generally an exercise of judgment and is guided by, but not solely determined by, results in competitions. Investment decisions are necessarily subjective and an exercise of expert opinion. As such, while an appeals policy is provided for teams to appeal non-investment on the grounds that the policy has not been adhered to, athletes are not able to appeal against investment decisions on any other grounds including against a Panel member's judgement. A process whereby a team can request an appeal of a decision is provided for in Appendix 2.

Appendix 2

Appeals Relating to British Curling Programme Investment Decisions

The following procedures have been adopted by British Curling in consideration of any appeal made by or on behalf of any player or team wishing to appeal his or her investment from the British Curling Programme.

Any player or team seeking a appeal of an investment decision should be aware of the time limits contained in the policy which are designed with the intention of resolving issues in a timely, fair and transparent manner.

All players and teams should read this policy carefully and satisfy themselves that they are eligible to appeal in the first instance. Any appeals which do not satisfy the grounds of appeals will be dismissed automatically.

The parties agree not to commence, continue, and maintain any legal challenge to any matter falling under the jurisdiction of the appeal panel before any court of law or dispute resolution body without first following this procedure.

1. A player or team may request an appeal of a investment decision by submitting a written request to the Chief Operating Officer (COO) of British Curling, Bruce Crawford for a review within 5 working days of the announcement of the investment decision, stating the grounds for the review.
2. Appeals will only be considered on the grounds of;
  - (i) The investment policy process was not followed.
  - (ii) Misconduct of Investment Panel members

There are no appeals allowed against the content of the published investment criteria and therefore against the actions of the investment panel, provided they follow the investment criteria. The criteria for appeal may not include any alleged error of judgment of the investment panel members.

3. The appeal will be coordinated by Performance Director and comprise of a panel consisting of the COO of British Curling/CEO of the Scottish Curling (who in normal circumstances will chair the process); The Chairs of British Curling & the respective Home Nation Curling NGB(s) (or an agreed representative of either) within 7 days of receipt of the request for a review and may at the Appeal Panel's absolute discretion, include a meeting with the relevant team
4. The Appeals. Panel can make one of two decisions can be made at this stage. The panel can:
  - Uphold the appeal and request the Investment Panel to reconsider it investments.
  - Reject the appeal.

The Appeals Panel must make full justification of any decision made.

5. The decision of the Appeals Panel is final and binding on all parties, as the review process is an exercise of discretion in the matter of investment. It is not a disciplinary or 'judicial' finding and as such, is not subject to further appeal.
